AKC Earthdog Seminar for Judges & Handlers

Friday, July 12, 2019

Presented by Jo Ann Frier-Murza

Puget Sound Earthdog Club is proud to host an AKC Earthdog Seminar for Judges & Handlers on Friday, July 12, 2019 at Argus Ranch, Auburn, WA.

This seminar is very useful for people fairly new to Earthdog who want to learn more about the tests as well as those who are thinking about becoming an Earthdog judge. And of course, it is great for those of us longtime earthdoggers as a refresher on the rules.

Jo Ann Frier-Murza is the AKC Field Representative for Earthdog. She has been active in terrier and Dachshund den trials since 1972. In 1993 she worked with AKC to establish the sport of Earthdog and has hosted and judged numerous tests. She authored the book Earthdog Ins & Outs, 2nd Ed.

This seminar is a classroom presentation and discussion followed optionally by the judge's test. Anyone who attends the seminar can take the test; there is no additional charge for taking the test.

Seminar Cost: $30 per person if paid by June 22nd and $45 per person if paid after June 22nd.

For more information and registration forms: Michele Luther, darlufox@frontier.com (360) 317-4283.
